    City Attorney Glenn West then addressed the Council in regard to the status of the suit filed against the City by the assignees of the patentees of the activated sludge process of sewage disposal. Mr West stated that the Supreme Court of the United States had refused to grant a re-hearing of a similar case against the City of Milwaukee Wisconsin and that several Southern California cities who were defendants in similar suits to that filed against this City had united in retaining Lyon & Lyon as attorneys in defending these suits. He stated that he had written to one of the City Attorneys asking for a copy of the contract for legal services under which these attorneys had been employed but that he had not as yet received it.

    On motion of Councilman Weihe, Keagle second, the Council adjourned at 9:00 o'clock P.M. to meet as previous-agreed on Wednesday, November 7th,1934 at 8:00 o'clock P.M.

              Attest:
